

Provider

Provider (@provider.999) is an Austin, TX based DJ and producer. He is also a co-founder of the record label Perfect Dark, a label making waves in the US techno scene and regularly throwing events in Austin, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. Provider's sound takes inspiration from ambient, textural, and dubbed out electronic music and presents it in the dancefloor friendly form of groove focused techno, breaks, and electro. Expect atmospheric soundscapes and cutting edge sound design that transports you across genre lines. Previously known for his releases under the moniker "Luvr Boy", Provider has just recently released his debut four track EP "Uncanny Valley", which is streaming on all platforms and available for purchase on bandcamp.
